561 BRUNSWICK STREET

NEW FARM

T. 3333 2231

With a conveyor-belt table, much like a sushi train but intended for tapas, Pintxo is an innovative addition to Brunswick Street. Named after the type of tapas bars found in Spain's Basque region, this New Farm restaurant embodies the casualness, hospitality and flavours of its namesake. Try the finest Manchego, Jamon and Chorizo straight off the train, or choose to sit down and order from the menu. For those in need for a good glass of wine and good food without the lavish trimmings of a fine-dining restaurant, Pintxo is a great neighbourhood eatery. Sample the menu and reminisce or dream of the wonderful colours and flavours of Spain.
